

On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules. We need rules in place that serve the public, rather than private, interests. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. We must not limit the diversity of opinion available on the media by giving large corporations more power.

Sincerely,
-Ben Hill